REVERSE ENGINEERING

A Petition Drafting Competition

14nd February, 2019, Thursday

The case always precedes the judgment.

Petitions are drafted, arguments are presented, conclusions are drawn and a judgment is delivered.

How about rewriting the standard protocol?

We provide you with the judgment and you draft the Petition!

Combine language, inference and presentation and craft a case!

Now that's what we call

Reverse Engineering!

RULES:

- Each team shall comprise of two participants only
- A copy of the judgment will be provided to each team.
- Participants will be required to draft the Petition from the given judgment.
- Time: 120 minutes to draft the Petition.
- Computer facility will be provided by the college to draft the petition.
- The competition will commence at 1:00p.m in the Computer Lab.
- The result of the competition will be declared on Saturday 16th February, 2019 at the Valedictory Function.

Registration can be made on <https://goo.gl/forms/oM8TbphskRJE5pjl2> or by submitting the scanned copy at suman.kalani@pgcl.ac.in

DONNING THE WIG

A Judgment Writing Competition
15th February 2019, Friday

“With great power comes great responsibility”

As prospective lawyers, we have all conditioned ourselves to arguing cases and to being judged.

But have we ever wondered what it would be like if the roles were reversed?

Seize the chance to preside on the bench!

So come, Don the wig and give your judgment!

RULES:

- Each team shall comprise of two participants only
- The fact sheet relating to the case will be provided to all teams on the spot. Each team will be given 15 minutes to read the same.
- Arguments shall be presented to the participants by student volunteers.
- After the presentation of the arguments, Participants will have 120 minutes for writing the judgment.
- Only one team member will be allowed to sit on the dais as a Judge. The other team member will remain present in the audience. However, both team members shall jointly draft the judgment.
- Computer facility will be provided by the college to draft the petition
- The competition will commence at 1:00 p.m.
- The result of the competition will be declared on Saturday, 16th February, 2019 at the Valedictory Function.
