Overview of the College:

PGCL was established in the year 2004. The College is affiliated to Mumbai University and is approved by Bar Council of India. The methodology at PGCL intersects a legal education with a contextualization that embraces social, political and economic systems. The college provides the students with varied platforms to develop their skills by way of debates at the intra and inter collegiate levels, seminars, workshops, trial advocacy through moot competitions and Juris – cine club. L'avocat, an in – house Student's Newsletter, enables the students to air their passionate concerns on issues, topical or otherwise, and innovative interactive methods of study in the classroom create an ambience that fosters intellectual growth.

- The college has been organizing:
  - The National Trial Advocacy Judgment Writing Competition, “Nyayavalokan”.
  - “Conficiendis Legislativa”, National Legislative Drafting Competition
  - “Shastrartha” – A Legal Philosophical Discourse
