

Vigilance Awareness Week 2020 is : Vigilant India, Prosperous India

The college, in association with Vigilance Directorate (WR), Airports Authority of India, organized an online Intra-College Elocution Competition on 28 October 2020, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. This competition was held as part of the Observance of Vigilance Awareness Week - 27 October to 2 November 2020.

Dr. S.P. Choudhary, General Manager of Law, Airports Authority of India, presided over the competition as our Guest Speaker and Judge. He shared his views on vigilance expressing the need for addressing and eradicating corruption in public and private organizations. Mr. Sudarshan Bagale, Assistant General Manager, Vigilance Directorate (WR), Airports Authority of India, delivered a talk explaining the journey of Central Vigilance Commission and the role of Vigilance departments in public sectors.

The theme of Vigilance Awareness Week 2020 is : Vigilant India, Prosperous India. The same theme was selected for the competition. Students participated enthusiastically, and delivered thought-provoking speeches.

As a Co-Judge, Dr. Vidya Bhole, Assistant Professor of English, Mithibai College, joined the event and gave her valuable feedback to the participants.

The event was a great success, and the initiative of creating awareness on vigilance was greatly applauded by the members of the Airports Authority of India. We express our heartfelt gratitude to the Vigilance Directorate (WR), Airports Authority of India. This collaboration has been very fruitful, and we look forward to continuing our association for future events too.
