REVERSE ENGINEERING

A Petition Drafting Competition

3rd February 2022

2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.

RULES OF THE COMPETITION

*The case always precedes the judgment.
Petitions are drafted, arguments are presented, conclusions are drawn and a judgment is delivered.*

How about rewriting the standard protocol?

We provide you with the judgment and you draft the Petition!

Combine language, inference and presentation and craft a case!

Now that's what we call Reverse Engineering!

- The competition will commence at 2:00 p.m.
- A copy of the judgment will be e-mailed to the e-mail id given in the registration form by the participants at 1:45 p.m.
- Each participant will be required to draft the petition from the given judgment.
- Participants will be given 120 minutes to draft the petition.
- Participants have to submit the draft of pleading in the PDF format by 4:00 p.m. at shastrartha.pgcl@gmail.com.
- Participants should mail their submissions with the team code allotted to them. They should not write their name or college name in the submissions.
- The result of the competition will be declared on Saturday, 5th February 2022 at the Valedictory session.
- Orientation of the Competition will be conducted on 1st February 2022. Participants are requested to make sure that their devices have a functioning camera, microphone and speaker with a stable internet connection.

NARRATIVE JURISPRUDENCE

An Oral Advocacy Competition

3rd February 2022
6.00 p.m.-7.30 p.m.

RULES OF THE COMPETITION

"If you expect the world to be fair with you because you are fair with them, it is like expecting a lion not to eat you because you don't eat a lion."

If you think, you have what it takes to think beyond the letter of the law, this is the perfect chance to explore the element of jurisprudence!

- The competition will commence at 6:00 p.m.
- Each participant will be provided with a newspaper article related to an offence.
- The participants will have to plead on behalf of the accused. The participant will have to combine the social events and varied perceptions of society in order to put forth submissions in a narrative form.
- The time limit is 5 minutes.
- Participants are not allowed to plead facts beyond the newspaper article.
- The result of the competition will be declared on 5th February 2022 at the Valedictory session.
- Orientation of the competition will be conducted on 1st February 2022. Participants are requested to make sure that their devices have a functioning camera, microphone and speaker with a stable internet connection.

DONNING THE WIG

A Judgment Writing Competition

4th February 2022

1:30 p.m.-5.00 p.m.

RULES OF THE COMPETITION

"With great power comes great responsibility"

As prospective lawyers, we have all conditioned ourselves to arguing cases and to being judged.

But have we ever wondered what it would be like if the roles were reversed? Seize the chance to preside on the bench!

So come, Don the wig and give your judgment!

- The competition will commence at 1:30 p.m.
- The fact sheet relating to the case will be provided to all participants through e-mail by 1:30 p.m. Each participant will be given 15 minutes to read the same.
- Arguments shall be presented to the participants by student volunteers.
- After the presentation of the arguments, each participant will have 120 minutes for writing the judgment.
- Submissions should be made in PDF format with Code name given to each participant. Please don't write your names in your judgment PDF and submit on or before 5:00 p.m. at shastrartha.pgcl@gmail.com.
- The result of the competition will be declared on 5th February 2022 at the Valedictory session.
- Orientation of the competition will be conducted on 1st February 2022. Participants are requested to make sure that their devices have a functioning camera, microphone and speaker with a stable internet connection.
