INSTITUTIONAL GENDER POLICY

The Institution has always upheld the values of equality, liberty and fraternity. In that aspect, the Institution constantly strives to make its campus safe, secure and gender inclusive. For the furtherance of gender equality, the Institution designs an Annual Gender Action Plan based on the Institutional Gender Policy.

- Equal opportunities will be provided to all genders for all activities conducted by the Institution
- Internal Complaints Cell will ensure swift disciplinary action for any gender-related complaints.
- Effective safety measures will be implemented including CCTVs, Women guards, complaint box, etc.
- Workshops for self-defense and gender rights will be conducted.
- The IQAC and Women's Development cell will initiate gender related programs on campus including gender themed conferences, guest lectures and seminars.
- Teachers will be encouraged to incorporate gender-sensitive topics in course curriculum.
- Gender-sensitization programs will be conducted regularly.
- The Institution will take efforts to collaborate with NGOs that work for women's rights and gender discrimination.
