2.	Mrs Sarika Jayatkar
3.	Mrs Shilpi Jha
4.	Dr Navasikha Duara

Welcome & introductory remarks by the Convener:

The IQAC Convener welcomed everyone. The meeting commenced at 2:00 p.m.

The following matters were discussed with respect to the agenda:

Item I: To discuss and propose initiative for quality enhancement, both in academics and administration

To explore possibilities for quality enhancement in academics, it was suggested that training programs in career enrichment, especially preparation in competitive exams for career opportunities for law graduates should be conducted

Item II: To propose reforms and suggestions by IQAC members

a. To propose activities to encourage research acumen amongst students and faculty

To instill and encourage research skills and activities, the library was advised to initiate and conduct library-oriented activities for providing more resources to aspiring researchers

b. To propose activities to enhance curriculum delivery and enrich the curriculum

Subject-specific committees, such as SAIL (Society of International Law and Its Affairs), CLPRS (Constitutional Law and Policy Reform Society) were given suggestions to hold discussions on recent developments and emerging areas of related law

c. To explore possibilities for training law graduates in career preparation, especially in academics and research

The members suggested that a career program should be introduced to provide a platform for on-field experience for students so that they are better prepared for their placements; the Placement Cell was instructed to take the proposal forward.

The IQAC members suggested that law graduates should be given a training session on competitive exams for job opportunities and research fellowship, such as NET.

Item III. Any other matter, with the permission of the Convener

No other matter was discussed.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:00 p.m.
