Reverse Engineering

A PETITION DRAFTING COMPETITION

*“The case always precedes the judgment.
Petitions are drafted, arguments are presented,
conclusions are drawn and a judgment is delivered.*

How about rewriting the standard protocol?

*We provide you with the judgement and you draft the Petition!
Combine language, inference, and presentation, and craft a case!
Now that’s what we call Reverse Engineering!”*

RULES OF THE EVENT

- The competition will commence at 2:00 p.m., on 11th February 2025.
- A copy of the judgment will be e-mailed to the e-mail address given in the registration form by the participants at 1:45 p.m.

NARRATIVE JURISPRUDENCE

An ORAL ADVOCACY COMPETITION

*“If you expect the world to be fair with you because you are fair with them, it is like expecting a lion not to eat you because you don’t eat a lion.”
If you think, you have what it takes to think beyond the letter of the law, this is the perfect chance to explore the element of jurisprudence!*

DONNING THE WIG

A JUDGMENT WRITING COMPETITION

“With great power comes great responsibility.”

As prospective lawyers, we have all conditioned ourselves to arguing cases and to being judged. But have we ever wondered what it would be like if the roles were reversed? Seize the chance to preside on the bench!

So come, Don the wig and give your judgment!

RULES OF THE EVENT

- The competition will commence at 2:00 p.m., on 12th February 2025.
- The fact sheet relating to the case will be provided to all participants through e-mail by 2:00 p.m.
- Each participant will be given 15 minutes to read the same. Arguments shall be presented to the participants by student volunteers.
- After the presentation of the arguments, each participant will have 120 minutes to write the judgment.
- Submissions should be made in PDF format with the Code name given to each participant. Please don't write your names in your judgment PDF and submit it on or before 5:30 p.m. at shastrartha.pgcl@gmail.com
- Each college is permitted to register only two participant per event.

The result of the competition will be declared on Thursday, 13th February 2025 at the Valedictory session. Orientation of the Competition will be conducted on the 8th February 2025.
