Description	The DLLE committee of Pravin Gandhi College of Law organised a poster exhibition highlighting various aspects of civic sense such as road manners, cleanliness, visiting the sick, and other socially responsible behaviours. Students associated with the DLLE committee created informative and creative posters addressing these themes. The posters were then displayed within the college premises for other students and visitors to view. During the exhibition, the students who created the posters also explained the ideas and messages behind their work to their peers. Through visual art and discussion, the exhibition served as an interactive platform for spreading awareness about the importance of civic responsibility in everyday life.
Conclusion/ Outcome	The poster exhibition successfully raised awareness among students about the importance of practising civic sense in daily life. It encouraged thoughtful discussions and reflection on social responsibility within the college community. The activity also provided students with an opportunity to creatively express their perspectives on important civic issues while engaging their peers in meaningful dialogue.
